THE CONSTITUTION ACT.<sup>(1)</sup>

(15 & 16 VICT. c. 72.)

AN ACT to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand. [30th June, 1852.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session holden in the third 3 and 4 Vict.
and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-two, it c. 62.
was enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent, to be from time to time issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to erect into a separate Colony or Colonies any Islands which then were, or which thereafter might be, comprised within and be Dependencies of the Colony of New South Wales: And whereas in pursuance of the powers in Her vested by the said Act, Her Majesty did, by certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, bearing date the sixteenth day of November, in the fourth year of Her reign, erect into a separate Colony the Islands of New Zealand, theretofore comprised within or Dependencies of the Colony of New South Wales, bounded as therein described; and the said Islands of New Zealand were thereby erected into a separate Colony accordingly; and Her Majesty did, by the said Letters Patent, authorize the Governor for the time being of the said Colony of New Zealand, and certain other persons, to be a Legislative Council for such Colony, and to make laws for the peace, order, and good government thereof: And whereas by an 9 and 10 Vict.
Act of the Session holden in the ninth and tenth years c. 103.

(1) This title is given by the Interpretation Acts 1858 and 1868.
The Act was proclaimed in New Zealand on the 17th January, 1853.

1840
11 and 12 Vict.
c. 5.

of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and three, the Act firstly herein recited, and all Charters, Letters Patent, Instructions, and Orders in Council, made and issued in pursuance thereof, were repealed, abrogated, and annulled, so far as the same were repugnant to the Act now in recital, or any Letters Patent, Charters, Orders in Council, or Royal Instructions to be issued under the authority thereof; and, by the Act now in recital, certain powers for the government of the said Islands were vested in Her Majesty, to be executed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, or by Instructions under Her Majesty's signet and sign manual, approved in Her Privy Council, and accompanying or referred to in such Letters Patent: And whereas in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act, Her Majesty did, by Letters Patent, bearing date at Westminster the twenty-third day of December, in the tenth year of Her reign, and by certain instructions made and approved as required by such Act, and bearing even date with and accompanying the said Letters Patent, execute certain of the powers by such Act vested in Her Majesty for the better government of the said Islands: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter five, so much of the said Act secondly herein recited, and the said Letters Patent and Instructions issued in pursuance thereof, as relates to the constitution and establishment of two or more separate Assemblies within the said Islands, and of a General Assembly in and for the said Islands, was suspended for five years, unless Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, should direct the same to be carried into effect before the expiration of that period; and, by the Act now in recital, the said firstly-recited Act, Letters Patent, and Instructions were revived for the time during which the said secondly recited Act, Letters Patent, and Instructions were suspended as aforesaid; and, by the Act now in recital, certain powers were vested respectively in the Governor-in-Chief of the said Islands, and in such Governor and the Legislative Council thereof: And whereas it is expedient that further and better provision should be made for the Government of New Zealand:

1. The said Acts, and all Charters, Letters Patent, Instructions, and Orders in Council, issued in pursuance thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same are repugnant to, or would prevent or interfere with the operation of this Act, or any Letters Patent or Instructions to be issued under the authority or in pursuance of this Act: <sup>Repeal of recited Acts, &c.</sup> Provided nevertheless, that all <sup>Provisoes.</sup> laws and ordinances made, and acts done, under and in pursuance of the said recited Acts, and any Charters, Letters Patent, Instructions, or Orders in Council, issued in pursuance thereof, shall continue as lawful, valid, and effectual, as if this Act had not been passed, save so far as any such laws, ordinances, or acts may be repugnant to, or would prevent or interfere with, the operation of this Act: Provided also, that, until the expiration of the time, or latest of the times, appointed for the return of writs for the first election of Members of the Provincial Councils of the Provinces established by this Act, the existing Provincial Legislative Councils shall continue to have and exercise all rights, jurisdiction, powers, and authorities which they would have had if this Act had not been passed; and until the expiration of the time appointed for the return of the writs for the first election of the Members of the House of Representatives to be constituted under this Act, the Legislative Council of New Zealand shall continue to have and exercise all rights, jurisdiction, powers, and authorities which such Legislative Council would have had if this Act had not been passed.

2. The following Provinces are hereby established in New Zealand, namely, Auckland, New Plymouth,<sup>(1)</sup> <sup>Certain Provinces established in New Zealand.</sup>

(1) See section 69, post. The name of New Plymouth was changed to Taranaki by "The Province of Taranaki Act, 1858." By Proclamation of 28th February, 1853, the boundaries of the several Provinces were defined as follows :—"The Province of Auckland shall be bounded on the North by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the East by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the River Mokau to its source, thence by a right line running Wellington, Nelson, Canterbury, and Otago; and the limits of such several Provinces shall be fixed by Proclamation by the Governor, as soon as conveniently may be after the proclamation of this Act in New Zealand.

Each Province to have a Superintendent and Provincial Council.

3. For each of the said Provinces hereby established, and for every Province hereafter to be established as hereinafter provided, there shall be a Superintendent and a Provincial Council; and the Provincial Council of each of the said Provinces hereby established shall consist of such number of Members, not less than nine, as the Governor shall by proclamation direct and appoint.

Before elections of Members of Provincial Councils, Superintendents of Provinces to be chosen.

4. Upon or before the issue of writs for the first election of Members of the Provincial Council for any Province established by or under this Act, the persons duly qualified in each of the said Provinces to elect Members of the Provincial Councils as hereinafter mentioned, shall elect a Superintendent of such Province; and on the termination of such Council, by

The Province of New Plymouth shall be bounded on the North by the River Mokau to its source; the East by a right line running from the source of the River Mokau to the point where the Ngahuinga or Tuhua, the principal tributary of the Whanganui River, is intersected by the thirty-ninth parallel of South latitude, thence by the River Whanganui to the point where it is met by the Taumatamahoe path leading from the River Waitera, thence by a right line running from the above-described point on the Whanganui River to the mouth of the River Patea; the West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto. The Province of Wellington shall be bounded on the North by the southern boundary of the Province of Auckland, as already described in this Proclamation; the East by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the North-west by the southern portion of the eastern boundary of the Province of New Plymouth, as already described in this Proclamation; the South-west by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto. The Province of Nelson shall be bounded on the North by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the East by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the River Hurunui to its source, thence by a right line drawn to the point where the River Kotu-urakaoka issues out of Lake Brunner, thence by the River Kotu-expiration of the period hereinafter fixed for its continuance, or by the previous dissolution thereof, the persons qualified as aforesaid shall elect the same or some other person to be Superintendent, and so on from time to time; and every such Superintendent shall hold his office until the election of his successor: Provided always,<sup>(1)</sup> that it shall be lawful for the Governor of New Zealand, on behalf of Her Majesty, to disallow any such election; and if such disallowance be signified by the Governor, under the Seal of New Zealand, to the Speaker of such Council, at any time within three months after such election, the office of Superintendent shall become vacant;<sup>(2)</sup> and on any vacancy occasioned by such disallowance, or by the death or resignation of the Superintendent (such resignation being accepted by the Governor on behalf of Her Majesty), a new election shall in like manner take place: Provided further, that, at any time during the continuance of the office of any such Superintendent, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to remove him from such office, on receiving an address urakaoka to its junction with the River Grey, thence by the River Grey to its mouth. The Province of Canterbury shall be bounded on the North by the southern boundary of the Province of Nelson, as already described in this Proclamation; the East by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the River Waitangi to its source, thence by a right line running to the source of the River Awarua, thence by the River Awarua to its mouth. The Province of Otago shall be bounded on the North by the southern boundary of the Province of Canterbury, as already described in this Proclamation; the East by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the West by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto; the South by the coast line, including the islands adjacent thereto, with the exception of Stewart's Island, its adjacent islands, and Sclanders Island, and the Island of Ruapuke." "The Boundaries of Provinces Act, 1858," provides a machinery for settling disputes concerning boundaries. In addition to the above, the following Provinces have been established under "The New Provinces Act, 1858":—Hawke's Bay, on 1st November, 1858; Marlborough, on 1st November, 1859; and Southland, on 1st April, 1861. Westland was established by "The County of Westland Act, 1867."

misprint for
"Solander."

<sup>(2)</sup> As to the causes by which the office of Superintendent may become vacant, see "The Disqualification Act, 1858," and "The Public Offenders' Disqualification Act, 1867."

signed by the majority of the Members of such Provincial Council praying for such removal; and thereupon the like proceedings shall be had as in the case of any such vacancy as above mentioned.

Governor
may appoint electoral districts, &c.

5. It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation to constitute within each of the said Provinces hereby established convenient electoral districts for the election of Members of the Provincial Council, and of the Superintendent, and to appoint and declare the number of Members to be elected for each such district for the Provincial Council, and to make provision for the registration and revision of lists of all persons qualified to vote at the elections to be holden within such districts, and for the appointing of Returning Officers, and for issuing, executing, and returning the necessary writs for such elections, and for taking the poll thereat, and for determining the validity of all disputed returns, and otherwise for ensuring the orderly, effective, and impartial conduct of such elections; and in determining the number and extent of such electoral districts, and the number of Members to be elected for each district, regard shall be had to the number of electors within the same, so that the number of Members to be assigned to any one district may bear to the whole number of the Members of the said Council, as nearly as may be, the same proportion as the number of electors within such district shall bear to the whole number of electors within the limits of the Province.

Qualification
of Members.

6. Every person within any Province hereby established, or hereafter to be established, who shall be legally qualified as an elector, and duly registered as such, shall be qualified to be elected a Member of the Provincial Council thereof, or to be elected Superintendent thereof: Provided always, that it shall not be necessary that he reside or possess the qualification in the particular district for which he may be elected to serve as a Member.

Qualification
of voters.

7. The Members of every such Council shall be chosen by the votes of the inhabitants of the Province who may be qualified as hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, every man of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, having a freehold estate in possession, situate within the district for which the vote is to be given, of the clear value of fifty pounds above all charges and incumbrances, and of or to which he has been seized or entitled, either at law or in equity, for at least six calendar months next before the last registration of the electors, or having a leasehold estate in possession, situate within such district, of the clear annual value of ten pounds, held upon a lease which at the time of such registration shall have not less than three years to run, or having a leasehold estate so situate, and of such value as aforesaid, of which he has been in possession for three years or upwards next before such registration, or being a householder within such district, occupying a tenement within the limits of a town (to be proclaimed as such by the Governor for the purposes of this Act), of the clear annual value of ten pounds, or without the limits of a town, of the clear annual value of five pounds, and having resided therein six calendar months next before such registration as aforesaid, shall, if duly registered, be entitled to vote at the election of a Member or Members for the district.

8. Provided always, that no person shall be entitled to vote at any such election who is an alien, or who at any time theretofore shall have been attainted or convicted of any treason, felony, or infamous offence, within any part of Her Majesty's dominions, unless he shall have received a free pardon, or shall have undergone the sentence or punishment to which he shall have been adjudged for such offence.

9. It shall be lawful for any Member of any Provincial Council, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Superintendent of the Province, to resign his seat in the said Council; and upon the receipt by the Superintendent of such resignation, the seat of such Member shall become vacant.

10. If any Member of any Provincial Council shall, for two successive Sessions of such Council, fail to give his attendance therein, or shall become bankrupt, or shall become an insolvent debtor within the meaning of the laws relating to insolvent debtors, or shall become a public defaulter, or be attainted of treason, or be convicted of felony or any infamous offence, his seat in such Council shall thereupon become vacant.<sup>(1)</sup>

Aliens and persons convicted of certain offences disqualified.

Members may resign their seats.

In certain cases seats to become void.

Determination of questions as to vacancies.

11. Any question which shall arise respecting any vacancy in a Provincial Council on occasion of any of the matters aforesaid shall be heard and determined by such Council, on such question being referred to them for that purpose by the Superintendent of the Province, and not otherwise.<sup>(1)</sup>

Issue of writs for supplying vacancies.

12. Whenever it shall be established to the satisfaction of the Superintendent, that the seat of any Member of the Provincial Council has become vacant, the Superintendent shall forthwith issue a writ for the election of a new Member to serve in the place so vacated, during the remainder of the term of the continuance of such Council, and no longer.<sup>(2)</sup>

Duration of Provincial Council.

13. Every Provincial Council shall continue for the period of four years from the day of the return of the writs for choosing the same, and no longer: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation or otherwise, sooner to dissolve the same, whenever he shall deem it expedient so to do.

When writs are to issue.

14. The Governor shall cause the first writs for the election of Members of the Provincial Council of every Province hereby established to be issued at some time not later than six calendar months next after the proclamation of this Act in New Zealand; and upon the expiration of the said period of the continuance of any Provincial Council, or upon the previous dissolution thereof, the Governor shall cause writs to be issued for the election of Members of the ensuing Council.

Convening of Council.

15. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, to fix such place or places within the limits of the Province, and such times for holding the first and every other session of the Provincial Council, as he may think fit, and from time to time, in manner aforesaid, to alter and vary such times and places as he may judge advisable, and most consistent with general convenience.

Prorogation.

16. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent to prorogue such Council from time to time, whenever he shall deem it expedient so to do.

17. Provided always, that there shall be a session of every Provincial Council once at least in every year, so that a greater period than twelve calendar months shall not intervene between the last sitting of the Council in one session, and the first sitting of the Council in the next session. A session to be held every year.

18. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent of each Province, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, to make and ordain all such laws and ordinances (except and subject as hereinafter mentioned) as may be required for the peace, order, and good government of such Province, provided that the same be not repugnant to the law of England.<sup>(1)</sup> Superintendent and Provincial Council may make laws.

19. It shall not be lawful for the Superintendent and Provincial Council to make or ordain any law or ordinance for any of the purposes hereinafter mentioned;<sup>(2)</sup> (that is to say)— Restrictions on powers of legislation.

- (1.) The imposition or regulation of Duties of Customs to be imposed on the importation or exportation of any goods at any port or place in the Province :
- (2.) The establishment or abolition of any Court of judicature of civil or criminal jurisdiction, except Courts for trying and punishing such offences as by the law of New Zealand are or may be made punishable in a summary way, or altering the constitution, jurisdiction, or practice of any such Court except as aforesaid :<sup>(3)</sup>
- (3.) Regulating any of the current coin, or the issue of any bills, notes, or other paper currency :
- (4.) Regulating the weights and measures to be used in the Province, or in any part thereof :
- (5.) Regulating the post offices and the carriage of letters within the Province :

<sup>(2)</sup> See sec. 53, post, which makes Provincial Acts, so far as repugnant to any Act of the General Assembly, void.

<sup>(3)</sup> See "The Provincial Councils' Powers Act, 1856," which gives Provincial Legislatures power to alter the civil jurisdiction of Courts of summary procedure, where the debt or damage claimed shall not exceed £20.

- (6.) Establishing, altering, or repealing laws relating to bankruptcy or insolvency :
- (7.) The erection and maintenance of beacons and lighthouses on the coast :
- (8.) The imposition of any dues or other charges on shipping at any port or harbour in the Province :
- (9.) Regulating marriages :
- (10.) Affecting lands of the Crown, or lands to which the title of the aboriginal native owners has never been extinguished :<sup>(1)</sup>
- (11.) Inflicting any disabilities or restrictions on persons of the Native races to which persons of European birth or descent would not also be subjected :
- (12.) Altering in any way the criminal law of New Zealand, except so far as relates to the trial and punishment of such offences as are now or may, by the criminal law of New Zealand, be punishable in a summary way, as aforesaid :<sup>(2)</sup>
- (13.) Regulating the course of inheritance of real or personal property, or affecting the law relating to wills.

As to election of Speaker.

20. Every Provincial Council shall, immediately on their first meeting, and before proceeding to the despatch of any other business, elect one of their Members to be the Speaker thereof during the continuance of such Council, which election being confirmed by the Superintendent, shall be valid and effectual ; and in case of vacancy in the said office by death, resignation, or otherwise, then and so often as the same shall happen, the election shall be repeated and confirmed as aforesaid.

Speaker to preside.

21. The Speaker of each Provincial Council shall preside at the meetings of such Council ; but in his absence, some Member elected by the Council shall preside.

<sup>(1)</sup> See "The Highways and Watercourses Diversion Act, 1858 ;" "The Provincial Councils' Powers Extension Act, 1863 ;" and "The Provincial Councils' Powers Extension Act, 1865," which give Provincial Legislatures power to deal with public roads and the beds of watercourses though the soil is vested in the Crown.

22. No Provincial Council shall be competent to the Quorum. despatch of any business, unless one-third of the whole number of Members be present.

23. All questions which shall arise in any such Council shall be decided by the majority of votes of the Members present other than the Speaker or presiding Member; but, in all cases wherein the votes shall be equal, the Speaker or presiding Member shall have a casting vote. Questions to be determined by majority of votes.

24. Every Provincial Council, at their first meeting, and from time to time afterwards, as occasion may require, shall prepare and adopt such standing rules and orders as may be best adapted for the orderly conduct of the business of such Council, which rules and orders shall be laid before the Superintendent; and, being by him approved, shall then become binding and in force. Standing orders to be adopted.

25. It shall not be lawful for any Provincial Council to pass, or for the Superintendent to assent to, any Bill appropriating any money to the public service, unless the Superintendent shall first have recommended to the Council to make provision for the specific service to which such money is to be appropriated; and no such money shall be issued, or be made issuable, except by warrants to be granted by the Superintendent. Appropriation and issue of money.

26. It shall be lawful for the Superintendent to transmit to the Provincial Council, for their consideration, the drafts of any such laws or ordinances as it may appear to him desirable to introduce; and all such drafts shall be taken into consideration in such convenient manner as in and by such rules and orders as aforesaid shall be in that behalf provided. Superintendent may transmit drafts of laws for consideration of Council.

27. Every Bill passed by the Provincial Council shall be presented to the Superintendent for the Governor's assent; and the Superintendent shall declare, according to his discretion (but subject, nevertheless, to the provisions herein contained, and to such instructions as may from time to time be given him by the Governor), that he assents to such Bill on behalf of the Governor, or that he withholds the assent of the Governor, or that he reserves such Bill for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon: Provided always, that it shall and Giving or withholding assent to Bills.

may be lawful for the Superintendent, before declaring his pleasure in regard to any Bill so presented to him, to make such amendments in such Bill as he thinks needful or expedient, and to return such Bill with such amendments to such Council, and the consideration of such amendments by such Council shall take place in such convenient manner as shall, in and by the rules and orders aforesaid, be in that behalf provided : Provided also, that all Bills altering or affecting the extent of the several electoral districts which shall be represented in the Provincial Council, or establishing new or other such electoral districts, or altering the number of the Members of such Council to be chosen by the said districts respectively, or altering the number of the Members of such Council, or altering the limits of any town, or establishing any new town, shall be so reserved as aforesaid.

Superintendent to send copies of Bills assented to to Governor.

Disallowance of Bills assented to.

28. Whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent as aforesaid, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof.

29. It shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare, by Proclamation, his disallowance of such Bill; and such disallowance shall make void and annul the same, from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

No Bill to have any force until assented to by Governor.

30. <sup>(1)</sup>No Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of the assent of the Governor shall have any force and authority within the Province until the Superintendent shall signify, either by speech or message to the Provincial Council, or by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same; and an entry shall be made in the journals of the Provincial Council of every such speech, message, or Proclamation; and a duplicate thereof, duly attested, shall be delivered to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, or other proper officer, to be kept among the records of the Province; and no Bill which shall be so reserved, as aforesaid, shall have any force or authority within the Province, unless the assent of the Governor thereto shall have been so signified, as aforesaid, within three months next after the day on which such Bill shall have been presented to the Superintendent for the Governor's assent.

<sup>(1)</sup> This section is repealed by "The Provincial Reserved Bills Act 1858," and substantially re-enacted with this difference, that the three months run from the day on which the Bill is received by the Governor, not from the day on which it is presented to the Superintendent. Under this Act the Proclamation must be in the Government Gazette of the Province.

31. It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, to transmit to the Superintendent of any Province, for his guidance in assenting to or withholding assent from bills, or reserving the same for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon, such instructions as to the Governor shall seem fit; and it shall be the duty of the Superintendent to act in obedience to such instructions.

Governor may transmit instructions to Superintendent as to reserving Bills.

32. There shall be within the Colony of New Zealand a General Assembly, to consist of the Governor, a Legislative Council, and House of Representatives.

Establishment of a General Assembly.

33. For constituting the Legislative Council of New Zealand, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, before the time to be appointed for the first meeting of the General Assembly, by an instrument under her Royal Sign Manual, to authorize the Governor, in Her Majesty's name, to summon to the said Legislative Council such persons, being not less in number than ten, as Her Majesty shall think fit; and it shall also be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, in like manner to authorize the Governor to summon to the said Legislative Council such other person or persons as Her Majesty shall think fit, either for supplying any vacancy or vacancies or otherwise; and every person who shall be so summoned shall thereby become a Member of the said Legislative Council:<sup>(1)</sup> Provided always, that no person shall be summoned to such Legislative Council who shall not be of the full age of twenty-one years, and a natural-born subject of Appointment of Members of the Legislative Council.

<sup>(1)</sup> Doubts having arisen as to the necessity for Members of the Legislative Council being approved of by Her Majesty before being summoned, the Imperial Act 31 and 32 Vict. cap. 57, (proclaimed in New Zealand on 29th January, 1869,) post, was passed, giving the future selection of Members to the Governor, and confirming all previous appointments.

Her Majesty, or a subject of Her Majesty naturalized by Act of Parliament, or by an Act of the Legislature of New Zealand.

Legislative Councillors
may hold seats
for life.

34. Every Member of the Legislative Council of New Zealand shall hold his seat therein for the term of his life; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions hereinafter contained for vacating the same.

Resignation of seat in Council.

35. It shall be lawful for any Member of the said Legislative Council, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Governor, to resign his seat in the said Council; and upon such resignation and acceptance thereof by the Governor, the seat of such Member shall become vacant.

Causes by which seat may be vacated.

36. If any Legislative Councillor of New Zealand shall, for two successive sessions of the General Assembly, without the permission of Her Majesty or of the Governor, signified by the said Governor to the Legislative Council, fail to give his attendance in the said Legislative Council, or shall take any oath, or make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to any foreign Prince or Power, or shall do, concur in, or adopt any act whereby he may become a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or become entitled to the rights, privileges, or immunities, of a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or shall become bankrupt, or shall become an insolvent debtor, within the meaning of the laws relating to insolvent debtors, or shall become a public defaulter, or be attainted of treason, or be convicted of felony, or any infamous crime, his seat in such Council shall thereby become vacant.<sup>(1)</sup>

Trial of question whether seats are
vacated.

37. Any question which shall arise respecting any vacancy in the said Legislative Council, on occasion of any of the matters aforesaid, shall be referred by the Governor to the said Legislative Council, to be by the said Legislative Council heard and determined: Provided always, that it shall be lawful, either for the person respecting whose seat such question shall have arisen, or for Her Majesty's Attorney-General for New Zealand on Her Majesty's behalf, to appeal from the determination of the said Council in such case to Her Majesty; and the judgment of Her Majesty, given with the advice of Her Privy Council thereon, shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes.

38. The Governor shall have power and authority from time to time to appoint one Member of the said Legislative Council to be Speaker of such Council, and to remove him and appoint another in his stead.

39. The presence of at least five Members of the said Legislative Council, including the Speaker, shall be necessary to constitute a meeting for the exercise of its powers; <sup>(1)</sup> and all questions which shall arise in the said Legislative Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Members present other than the Speaker, and when the votes shall be equal, the Speaker shall have the casting vote.

40. For the purpose of constituting the House of Representatives of New Zealand, it shall be lawful for the Governor, within the time hereinafter mentioned, and thereafter from time to time as occasion shall require, by Proclamation in Her Majesty's name, to summon and call together a House of Representatives in and for New Zealand, such House of Representatives to consist of such number of Members not more than forty-two nor less than twenty-four, as the Governor shall by Proclamation in that behalf direct and appoint; <sup>(2)</sup> and every such House of Representatives shall, unless the General Assembly shall be sooner dissolved, continue for the period of five years from the day of the return of the writs for choosing such House, and no longer.

41. It shall be lawful for the Governor, by Proclamation, to constitute within New Zealand convenient

(1) So much of this section as fixes the number necessary to constitute a quorum, is repealed by "The Legislative Council Quorum Act, 1865," which enacts that the number shall be regulated by the Council.

(2) By Proclamation of 5th March, 1853, the number of Members of the House of Representatives was fixed at thirty-seven. It has since been increased as follows:—By "The Electoral Districts Act, 1858," to 41. By "The Representation Act, 1860," to 53. By "The Representation Act, 1862," to 57. By "The Representation Act, 1865," to 70. By "The Westland Representation Act, 1867," to 72. By "The Maori Representation Act, 1867," four additional members are given, to be elected by Maoris. This Act continues for five years from 10th October, 1867.

provision for the specific public service towards which such money is to be appropriated, and (save as herein otherwise provided) no part of Her Majesty's revenue within New Zealand shall be issued, except in pursuance of warrants under the hand of the Governor, directed to the public Treasurer thereof.

Governor may transmit drafts of laws to either House.

55. It shall and may be lawful for the Governor to transmit by message to either the said Legislative Council or the said House of Representatives, for their consideration, the drafts of any laws which it may appear to him desirable to introduce, and all such drafts shall be taken into consideration in such convenient manner as shall, in and by the rules and orders aforesaid, be in that behalf provided.

Governor may assent to, refuse assent, or reserve Bills.

56. Whenever any Bill which has been passed by the said Legislative Council and House of Representatives shall be presented for Her Majesty's assent to the Governor, he shall declare according to his discretion, but subject, nevertheless, to the provisions contained in this Act, and to such instructions as may from time to time be given in that behalf by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, that he assents to such Bill in Her Majesty's name, or that he refuses his assent to such Bill, or that he reserves such Bill for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, before declaring his pleasure in regard to any Bill so presented to him, to make such amendments in such Bill as he thinks needful or expedient, and by message to return such Bill with such amendments to the Legislative Council or the House of Representatives, as he shall think the more fitting, and the consideration of such amendments by the said Council and House respectively shall take place in such convenient manner as shall, in and by the rules and orders aforesaid, be in that behalf provided.

Governor to conform to instructions transmitted by Her Majesty.

57. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, or under Her Majesty's Signet and Sign Manual, or through one of her Principal Secretaries of State, from time to time to convey to the Governor of New Zealand such instructions as to Her Majesty shall seem meet, for the guidance of such Governor, for the exercise of the powers hereby vested in him, of assenting to, or dissenting from, or for reserving for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure, Bills to be passed by the said Legislative Council and House of Representatives; and it shall be the duty of such Governor to act in obedience to such instructions.<sup>(1)</sup>

58. Whenever any Bill which shall have been presented for Her Majesty's assent to the Governor shall by such Governor have been assented to in Her Majesty's name, he shall, by the first convenient opportunity, transmit to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an authentic copy of such Bill so assented to; and it shall be lawful, at any time within two years after such Bill shall have been received by the Secretary of State, for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to declare her disallowance of such Bill; and such disallowance, together with a certificate under the hand and seal of the Secretary of State, certifying the day on which such Bill was received as aforesaid, being signified by the Governor to the said Legislative Council and House of Representatives by speech or message, or by proclamation in the Government Gazette, shall make void and annul the same, from and after the day of such signification.

As to disallowance by Her Majesty of Bills assented to by the Governor.

59. No Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall have any force or authority within New Zealand until the Governor shall signify, either by speech or message to the said Legislative Council and House of Representatives, or by Proclamation, that such Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her

No reserved Bill to have any force until assented to by Her Majesty.

(<sup>1</sup>) By the instructions of 14th November, 1867, to Sir G. F. Bowen, the following classes of Bills are directed to be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure, except in cases of urgent necessity:—

1. Divorce Bills.
2. Bills making a grant to the Governor.
3. Bills making paper or other currency (except coin of the realm, or gold or silver coin,) a legal tender.
4. Bills imposing differential duties.
5. Bills inconsistent with Imperial treaties.
6. Bills interfering with discipline or control of Her Majesty's forces.
7. Bills of an extraordinary nature prejudicial to the Royal prerogative, rights of non-resident subjects, or trade and shipping of the United Kingdom or its dependencies.
8. Bills containing provisions once disallowed or to which Royal assent has been refused.

Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same; and an entry shall be made in the Journals of the said Legislative Council and House of Representatives of every such speech, message, or proclamation, and a duplicate thereof, duly attested, shall be delivered to the Registrar of the Supreme Court, or other proper officer, to be kept among the records of New Zealand; and no Bill which shall be so reserved as aforesaid shall have any force or authority within New Zealand, unless Her Majesty's assent thereto shall have been so signified as aforesaid within the space of two years from the day on which such Bill shall have been presented for Her Majesty's assent to the Governor as aforesaid.

Acts to be printed.

60. The Governor shall cause every Act of the said General Assembly which he shall have assented to in Her Majesty's name to be printed in the Government Gazette for general information, and such publication by such Governor of any such Act shall be deemed to be in law the promulgation of the same.

Duties not to be levied on supplies for troops, nor any dues, &c., inconsistent with treaties.

61. It shall not be lawful for the said General Assembly to levy any duty upon articles imported for the supply of Her Majesty's land or sea forces, or to levy any duty, impose any prohibition or restriction, or grant any exemptions, bounty, drawback, or other privilege upon the importation or exportation of any articles, or to impose any dues or charges upon shipping contrary to, or at variance with, any treaty or treaties concluded by Her Majesty with any foreign Power.

Expenses of collection of revenue.

62. <sup>(1)</sup>The Governor is hereby authorized and required to pay, out of the revenue arising from taxes, duties, rates, and imposts, levied under any Act or Acts of the said General Assembly, and from the disposal of waste lands of the Crown, all the costs, charges, and expenses incident to the collection, management, and receipt thereof; also to pay out of the said revenue arising from the disposal of waste lands of the Crown such sums as may become payable under the provisions hereinafter contained, for or on account of the purchase of land from aboriginal natives or the release or extinguishment of their rights in any land, and such

c. 86.

77. Nothing in this Act, or in any Act, Law, or Ordinance to be made by the said General Assembly, or by any Provincial Assembly, shall affect or interfere with so much of an Act of the Session holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-six, intituled "An Act to regulate the affairs of certain Settlements established by the New Zealand Company in New Zealand," as relates to the administration of the funds for the public purposes of the Settlement of Nelson.

Power to Her Majesty to regulate the disposal of waste lands
in Otago.

78. And whereas certain terms of purchase and pasturage of land in the Settlement of Otago had been issued by the New Zealand Company before the fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and the said terms, or part of them, were in force on that day as contracts between the New Zealand Company and the Association of Lay Members of the Free Church of Scotland, commonly called the Otago Association: And whereas, by the provisions of the said Act of the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty, and of the said notice given by the New Zealand Company, the lands of the said Company in New Zealand reverted to and became vested in Her Majesty as part of the demesne lands of the Crown, subject nevertheless to any contract then subsisting in regard to any of the said lands: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made to enable Her Majesty to fulfil the contracts contained in such terms of purchase and pasturage as aforesaid:

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty for that purpose to make provision, by way of regulations to be contained in any charter to be granted to the said Association, for the disposal of the lands to which the said terms of purchase and pasturage relate, so far as the same are still in force as aforesaid, and for varying from time to time such regulations, with such consent by or on behalf of the said Association as in any such charter or instructions shall be specified, and for fixing the boundaries thereof, and for enabling the said Association to transfer its powers to the Provincial Council for the Province of Otago: Provided always, that no such charter shall be granted or have effect for any longer term than ten years from the passing of this Act; but one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may at any time during the term for which such charter shall be granted, by writing under his hand, extend the term for which such charter shall have been granted for such further time as in his discretion he may think fit: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such regulations as aforesaid, to diminish the sum now payable to the New Zealand Company in respect of all waste land sold under the said terms of purchase, unless with the consent of the New Zealand Company, signified as hereinbefore provided; and during the continuance of such charter as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the said General Assembly to repeal or interfere with any such regulations respecting lands in Otago, except with such consent by or on behalf of the Otago Association as in any such charter or instructions may be provided, and (so far as the rights of the New Zealand Company may be affected) with the consent of such Company signified as hereinbefore provided; and every Bill which shall repeal or interfere with any such regulations shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon.

No Act of the General Assembly to interfere with such regulations save with consent, &c.

79. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any such Letters Patent as aforesaid, or Instructions under Her Majesty's Signet and Sign Manual, or signified through one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to delegate to the Governor any of the powers hereinbefore reserved to Her Majesty respecting the removal of Superintendents of Provinces, and the regulation of the sale, letting, disposal, and occupation of waste lands, the establishment of municipal corporations, and the preservation of Aboriginal laws, customs, and usages.

Her Majesty may delegate certain powers to Governor.

80. <sup>(1)</sup> In the construction of this Act, the term "Governor" shall mean the person for the time being lawfully administering the Government of New Zealand; and for the purposes of this Act "New Zealand" shall

CONSTITUTION ACT AMENDMENT.

(20 & 21 VICT., CAP. LIII.)

AN ACT to amend the Act for granting a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand.<sup>(2)</sup>

[17th August, 1857.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 72.

WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act passed in the Session holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-two, to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand, should be amended by repealing certain clauses thereof, whereby certain charges were imposed on the Territorial Revenue of the said Colony, for which charges other provision has been or is intended to be made, and making further and other provision for enabling the General Assembly of New Zealand to alter the enactments thereof: BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Sections sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine, and seventy-four of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, and so much of section sixty-two of the said Act as authorizes and requires the Governor to pay out of the revenue arising from the disposal of waste lands of the Crown sums on account of the purchase of land from aboriginal natives, or the release or extinguishment of their rights, and sums payable to the New Zealand Company, are hereby repealed:

Sections 67, 68, 69, and 74, and part of sec. 62 of recited Act repealed.

2. It shall be lawful for the said General Assembly of New Zealand, by any Act or Acts, from time to time to alter, suspend, or repeal all or any of the provisions of the said Act, except such as are hereinafter specified;<sup>(1)</sup> namely,

Power to General Assembly of New Zealand to vary the provisions of the recited Act, with the exception herein named.

So much of the said Act as repeals former Acts, Letters Patent, Instructions, and Orders in Council:

The provisions contained in sections three, eighteen (save the exception therein contained), twenty-five, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty-two, forty-four, forty-six, forty-seven, fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, sixty-one, sixty-four (save so much as charges the Civil List on the revenues arising from the disposal of waste lands of the Crown), sixty-five, seventy-one, seventy-three, and eighty of the said Act:

But no such Act of the General Assembly as aforesaid, which shall alter, suspend, or repeal any of the provisions contained in section nineteen of the said Act, shall have any force or effect unless the same shall have been reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, and until the Governor of New Zealand shall have signified, as provided by the said Act, that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same.

Commencement of Act.

3. This Act shall be proclaimed in New Zealand by the Governor, or person administering the Government thereof, within six weeks after a copy of such Act shall have been received by such Governor, and shall take effect in New Zealand from the day of such Proclamation; <sup>(1)</sup> except that the repeal of section seventy-four of the said recited Act, and of so much of section sixty-two as relates to sums payable to the New Zealand Company, shall only take effect if on or before the fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, payment be made to the New Zealand Company of the sums and in the manner specified in the New Zealand Company's Claims Act, passed during the present Session of Parliament. <sup>(2)</sup>

Zealand, and to direct and appoint the number of Members of which the Provincial Councils of such Provinces shall consist, and to alter the boundaries of any Provinces for the time being existing in New Zealand.

General Assembly may repeal part of sec. 3 of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 72.

2. It shall be lawful for the said General Assembly to alter, suspend, or repeal so much of the third section of the hereinbefore first-recited Act of Parliament as provides that the Provincial Council in each of the Provinces thereby established shall consist of such number of Members, not being less than nine, as the Governor shall by Proclamation appoint.

Recited Act of General Assembly, 21 & 22 Vict., to be valid.

3. The hereinbefore recited Act passed by the said General Assembly, and all acts, matters, or things done under and in pursuance of authority created or given, or expressed to be created or given, by the same Act, shall be, and shall be deemed to have been from the passing or doing thereof, as valid and effectual for all purposes whatever as such acts, matters, or things might or would have been if at the time of the passing of the same Act by the said General Assembly this Act of Parliament had been in force.

Recited Act to apply to new Provinces.

4. The provisions of the two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, as altered by this Act, shall apply to all Provinces at any time existing in New Zealand, in like manner and under the same conditions as the same apply to the Provinces established by the hereinbefore first-recited Act of Parliament.

(25 & 26 VICT., CAP. XLVIII.)

AN ACT respecting the Establishment and Government of Provinces in New Zealand, and to enable the Legislature of New Zealand to repeal the Seventy-third Section of an Act intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand." [29th July, 1862.]

15 & 16 Vict. c. 72.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Session holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it was provided that certain Provinces therein mentioned should be established in the said Colony, and that in every such Province there should be a Provincial Council, and that there should be in the said Colony a General Assembly competent to make laws for the peace, order, and good government of the same; and by the sixty-ninth section of the said Act it was further provided that it should be lawful for the said General Assembly to constitute new Provinces in the said Colony, and to appoint the number of Members of which the Provincial Councils thereof should consist, and to alter the boundaries of any Provinces for the time being existing: Provided always, that any Bill for any of the said purposes should be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon: And whereas by an Act of the Session holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty, intitled "An Act to amend an Act for granting a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it was enacted that the sixty-ninth section of the said first-recited Act should be repealed, and that it should be lawful for the said General Assembly to alter, suspend, or repeal all or any of the provisions of the said Act, except certain sections therein specified: And whereas the said General Assembly, by an Act passed in a Session holden in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, intitled "An Act to provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand," or, more shortly, "The New Provinces Act, 1858," did authorize the Governor of the said Colony to establish such new Provinces in manner therein mentioned, and the said Governor did establish certain new Provinces accordingly: And whereas doubts are entertained whether it was competent to the said General Assembly to make such provision, and to the said Governor to establish such new Provinces as aforesaid: And whereas for the removing of such doubts an Act was passed in the now last Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to declare the Validity of an Act passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand, intitled 'An Act to provide for the Establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand':" And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament, and to make fresh provision respecting the establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand:

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 53.

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 30.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Queen's Most

Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 30, repealed.

"New Provinces Act, 1858," confirmed.

General Assembly to provide for the establishment of new Provinces in New Zealand.

General Assembly not to make laws inconsistent with provisions herein
mentioned.

1. The said last-mentioned Act of Parliament shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. The said "New Provinces Act, 1858," (except so far as the same shall have been altered by any Act subsequently passed by the said General Assembly,) shall be and be deemed to have been from the date of the passing thereof valid and effectual for all purposes whatever, and all matters and things done under and in pursuance of authority created or given, or expressed to be created or given by the same Act, shall be deemed to have been of the same force and effect as if the said Act, and everything therein contained, had from the above-mentioned date been actually so valid as afore-said.

3. Subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned, it shall be lawful for the said General Assembly, by any Act or Acts to be by them from time to time passed, to establish or provide for the establishment of new Provinces in the Colony of New Zealand, and to alter or to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of any Provinces for the time being existing in the said Colony, and to make provision for the administration of any such Provinces, and for the passing of laws for the peace, order, and good government thereof, and therein to repeal or alter any of the provisions of the two first hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament relating to such Provinces, or to the Superintendents and Provincial Councils thereof.

4. It shall not be lawful for the General Assembly to make any law inconsistent with the following provisions; that is to say,

- (1.) In every Province of New Zealand there shall be an officer designated the Superintendent, who, unless any provision shall be made to the contrary in any Act of the General Assembly, shall be capable of being elected and acting as a Member of the Council of the same Province.
- (2.) No Provincial law shall take effect until it shall have received the assent in writing either of the said Superintendent or of the Governor of New Zealand.

- (3.) In giving or refusing his assent to any Provincial law, or in reserving the same for the signification of the Governor's pleasure, the Superintendent shall conform to such instructions in writing as he may from time to time receive from the Governor.
- (4.) In case the Superintendent shall assent to any Provincial law, he shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof.
- (5.) It shall be lawful for the Governor at any time after the date of such assent, and until the expiration of three months after such authentic copy of any Provincial law shall have been received by him, to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such law, and such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation or any subsequent day to be named therein.
- (6.) It shall not be lawful for the Council or other Legislative body of any Province to pass, or for the Superintendent or Governor to assent to, any Bill appropriating any money to the Public Service, unless the Superintendent or Governor shall first have recommended to the Council to make provision for the specific service to which such money is to be appropriated, and no such money shall be issued or made issuable except by warrants to be granted by the Superintendent or Governor.
- (7.) It shall not be lawful for any such Council or other body as aforesaid to pass, and for the said Superintendent or Governor to assent to any law which shall be repugnant to the law of England or to any enactment of the said General Assembly.

5. It shall not be competent to the Governor of New Zealand to assent to any Bill passed by the Legislature of New Zealand which shall repeal or alter any of the provisions of the nineteenth clause of the first hereinbefore recited Act of Parliament, but the said Governor

Limitation of Governor's power to assent to Bills.

(unless he shall refuse his assent to such Bill) shall reserve the same for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure.

Parts of two first-recited
Acts repealed.

6. So much of the two first hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament as is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed.

Application of Acts to future
Provinces.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the said New Provinces Act, the said two first hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament shall apply to all Provinces at any time existing in New Zealand, in like manner and subject to the same conditions as the same apply to Provinces established by the first hereinbefore recited Act of Parliament.

Power to General Assembly to repeal or alter
sec. 73 of 15
and 16 Vict.
c. 72.

8. And whereas it is expedient to enable the General Assembly of New Zealand to repeal the seventy-third section of the first hereinbefore recited Act of Parliament: Be it further enacted as follows (that is to say): It shall be lawful for the said General Assembly to alter or repeal all or any of the provisions contained in the said section; and no Act passed by the General Assembly, nor any part of such Act, shall be or be deemed to have been invalid by reason that the same is repugnant to any of the said provisions.

"Governor."

9. In the construction of this Act the term "Governor" shall mean the person for the time being lawfully administering the Government of New Zealand.

AN ACT to alter the Boundaries of New Zealand.

[8th June, 1863.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 72.

WHEREAS by the eightieth section of an Act of the fifteenth year of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-two, intituled, "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it was provided, that for the purposes of that Act the said Colony should be held to include the Territories therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to alter the limits of the said Colony as declared by the said Act:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. So much of the eightieth section of the aforesaid Act of Parliament as declares the limits of the Colony of New Zealand for the purposes of the said Act is repealed. Part of
sec. 80 of
15 & 16 Vict.
c. 72 repealed.

2. The Colony of New Zealand shall for the purposes of the said Act and for all other purposes whatever be deemed to comprise all Territories, Islands, and Countries lying between the one hundred and sixty-second degree of East longitude and the one hundred and seventy-third degree of West longitude, and between the thirty-third and fifty-third parallels of South latitude. What shall be deemed the limits of the Colony.

(28 & 29 VICT., CAP. LXIII.)

AN ACT to remove Doubts as to the Validity of Colonial Laws. [29th June, 1865.]

WHEREAS doubts have been entertained respecting the validity of divers laws enacted or purporting to have been enacted by the Legislatures of certain of Her Majesty's Colonies, and respecting the powers of such Legislatures, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed :

BE IT HEREBY ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The term "Colony" shall in this Act include all of Her Majesty's possessions abroad in which there shall exist a Legislature, as hereinafter defined, except the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and such territories as may for the time being be vested in Her Majesty under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament for the Government of India : Definitions—
"Colony."

The terms "Legislature" and "Colonial Legislature" shall severally signify the authority, other than the Imperial Parliament or Her Majesty in Council, competent to make laws for any Colony : "Legislature."
"Colonial Legislature."

The term "Representative Legislature" shall signify any Colonial Legislature which shall comprise a Legislative Body of which one-half are elected by inhabitants of the Colony : "Representative Legislature."

The term "Colonial Law" shall include laws made for any Colony either by such Legislature as aforesaid or by Her Majesty in Council : "Colonial Law."

Act of Parliament, &c., when to extend to Colony. An Act of Parliament, or any provision thereof, shall, in construing this Act, be said to extend to any Colony when it is made applicable to such Colony by the express words or necessary intendment of any Act of Parliament :

“Governor.” The term “Governor” shall mean the officer lawfully administering the Government of any Colony :

“Letters Patent.” The terms “Letters Patent” shall mean Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Colonial Law, when void for repugnancy. 2. Any Colonial Law which is or shall be in any respect repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to the Colony to which such law may relate, or repugnant to any Order or Regulation made under authority of such Act of Parliament, or having in the Colony the force and effect of such Act, shall be read subject to such Act, Order, or Regulation, and shall, to the extent of such repugnancy, but not otherwise, be and remain absolutely void and inoperative.

Colonial Law, when not void for repugnancy. 3. No Colonial Law shall be or be deemed to have been void or inoperative on the ground of repugnancy to the Law of England, unless the same shall be repugnant to the provisions of some such Act of Parliament, Order, or Regulation as aforesaid.

Colonial Law not void for inconsistency with instructions. 4. No Colonial Law, passed with the concurrence of or assented to by the Governor of any Colony, or to be hereafter so passed or assented to, shall be or be deemed to have been void or inoperative by reason only of any instructions with reference to such law or the subject thereof which may have been given to such Governor by or on behalf of Her Majesty, by any instrument other than the Letters Patent or instrument authorizing such Governor to concur in passing or to assent to laws for the peace, order, and good government of such Colony, even though such instructions may be referred to in such Letters Patent or last-mentioned instrument.

Colonial Legislature may establish, &c., Courts of Law. 5. Every Colonial Legislature shall have and be deemed at all times to have had, full power within its jurisdiction to establish Courts of Judicature, and to abolish and reconstitute the same, and to alter the constitution thereof, and to make provision for the administration of Justice therein, and every Representative Legislature, shall, in respect to the Colony under its jurisdiction, have, and be deemed at all times to have had, full power to make laws respecting the constitution, powers, and procedure of such Legislature; provided that such laws shall have been passed in such manner and form as may from time to time be required by any Act of Parliament, Letters Patent, Order in Council, or Colonial Law for the time being in force in the said Colony.

6. The certificate of the Clerk or other proper officer of a Legislative Body in any Colony, to the effect that the document to which it is attached is a true copy of any Colonial Law assented to by the Governor of such Colony, or of any Bill reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure by the said Governor, shall be primâ facie evidence that the document so certified is a true copy of such Law or Bill, and, as the case may be, that such law has been duly and properly passed and assented to, or that such Bill has been duly and properly passed and presented to the Governor; and any Proclamation purporting to be published by authority of the Governor in any newspaper in the Colony to which such Law or Bill shall relate, and signifying Her Majesty's disallowance of any such Colonial Law, or Her Majesty's assent to any such reserved Bill as aforesaid, shall be primâ facie evidence of such disallowance or assent.

Representative Legislature may alter constitution.

7. [Certain Acts of Legislature of South Australia to be valid.]

(31 & 32 VICT., CAP. LVII.)

AN ACT to make Provision for the Appointment of Members of the Legislative Council of New Zealand, and to remove Doubts in respect of past Appointments.

[13th July, 1868.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter seventy-two, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by any instrument under her Royal Sign Manual, to authorize the Governor to summon to the Legislative Council of the said Colony such person

c. 72.

or persons as Her Majesty shall think fit, being qualified as therein is mentioned :

And whereas Her Majesty has, by divers instruments under her Royal Sign Manual, authorized successive Governors of the said Colony to summon to the said Legislative Council, from time to time, such person or persons, being qualified as aforesaid, as the said Governors respectively should deem to be prudent and discreet men :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said instructions, persons have, from time to time, been summoned to the said Legislative Council by the Governors of the said Colony :

And whereas doubts have arisen whether such persons, not having been, previously to their being so summoned, expressly named or appointed by Her Majesty in any instrument under the Royal Sign Manual, or otherwise, have been legally summoned to the said Legislative Council, and become Members thereof ; and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed, and that fresh provision should be made for the future appointment of Legislative Councillors in the said Colony :

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Part of recited
Act repealed.

Governor empowered to summon such persons as he may think fit to the Legislative Council.

1. So much of the said recited Act as is inconsistent with this Act is hereby repealed :

2. From and after the proclamation of this Act in the said Colony of New Zealand,<sup>(1)</sup> it shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Colony, from time to time, in Her Majesty's name, by an instrument or instruments under the Public Seal of the said Colony, to summon to the said Legislative Council such person or persons as the said Governor shall think fit, either in addition to the present Members of the said Council, or for supplying any vacancies which may take place therein by death or otherwise ; and every person who shall be so summoned shall thereby become a Member of the Legislative Council : Provided always, that, unless otherwise de-terminated by the Legislature of New Zealand, no person shall be summoned to such Legislative Council who shall not be of the full age of twenty-one years, and either a natural-born subject of Her Majesty, or a subject of Her Majesty naturalized by Act of Parliament or by an Act of the Legislature of New Zealand.

3. All persons who, before the proclamation of this Act in the said Colony, shall have been summoned to the Legislative Council of the said Colony by the Governor without having been so previously named or appointed by Her Majesty as aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to have been legally summoned, and to be and to have been and become Members of the Legislative Council from the respective periods when they were so summoned; and no matter or thing done by any such person so summoned as aforesaid, as such Member as aforesaid, shall be deemed or taken to be or to have been invalid by reason of such person not having been previously duly named or appointed by Her Majesty in pursuance of the said recited Act.

All summonses to Legislative Council declared valid.

4. In the construction of this Act the term "Governor" shall mean the person for the time being lawfully administering the Government of New Zealand.

(31 & 32 VICT., CAP. XCII.)

AN ACT to declare the Powers of the General Assembly of New Zealand to abolish any Province in that Colony, or to withdraw from any such Province any part of the Territory thereof.<sup>(1)</sup> [31st July, 1868.]

WHEREAS by the third section of an Act of the Session holden in the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act respecting the Establishment and Government of Provinces in New Zealand, and to enable the Legislature of New Zealand to repeal the seventy-third section of an Act intituled 'An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand,'" it was provided that it shall be lawful for the General Assembly of New Zealand, by any Act or Acts to be by them from time to time passed, to establish or provide for the establishment of new Provinces in the Colony of New Zealand, and to alter or to provide for the alteration of the boundaries of any Provinces for the time being existing in the said Colony, and to make provision for the administration of any such Provinces, and for the passing of laws for the peace, order, and good government thereof: And whereas doubts are entertained whether the said General Assembly has power under the above-recited enactments, or otherwise, to abolish any such Province now or hereafter to be established, or to withdraw from such Province any part of the territory comprised therein, except for the purpose of including the same within the limits of some other such Province, and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

General Assembly to have and to be deemed to have had power to abolish any Province, to withdraw therefrom any territory, and to make laws for such territory.

1. The General Assembly of New Zealand shall be deemed to have, and since the passing of the aforementioned Act to have had, the power of abolishing any Province at any time heretofore or hereafter to be established in New Zealand, or of withdrawing therefrom the whole or any part of the territory comprised therein, and of passing laws for the peace, order, and good government of the territory so withdrawn from or ceasing to form part of the territory of any such Province, whether such territory shall or shall not be included within the limits of any other Province of New Zealand, and also the power of making from time to time such provision as to such General Assembly shall seem expedient, relating to the effect and operation of any such withdrawals of territory in or with respect to the Province from which such territory shall have been withdrawn, and the Superintendent and Members of the Provincial Council thereof for the time being in office, and the laws in force in such Province at the time of such withdrawals of territory therefrom.
